INTRODUCTION

1. On January 4, 2024, prior to resuming filming of “It Ends With Us” (the “Film”) following guild strikes, an “all hands” meeting was convened to address the hostile work environment that had nearly derailed production of the Film. Attendees of the meeting included: (1) Justin Baldoni, who is the co-chairman and co-founder of Wayfarer Studios (the owner of the Film), as well as the Director, Executive Producer, and actor in the lead role of Ryle Kincaid; (2) Jamey Heath, the Chief Executive Officer of Wayfarer and Producer of the Film; (3) Ange Gianetti, the Film’s representative for its distributor Sony Pictures Entertainment; (4) Alex Saks, a producer on the Film; (5) Todd Black, a producer on the film; and (6) Blake Lively, who played the role of Lily Bloom in the Film. Ms. Lively also had the agreed-upon right to have a representative present. She chose her husband, given that the meeting was about repeated sexual harassment and other disturbing behavior by Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath.

2. As discussed in detail below, Ms. Lively was forced to address concerns about Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath’s misconduct with them directly, and began doing so months before filming began. The concerns she raised were not only for herself, but for the other female cast and crew, some of whom had also spoken up. The January 4 meeting occurred only after Wayfarer had rebuffed Ms. Lively’s efforts repeatedly.

3. During the January 4 meeting, the parties discussed in detail the inappropriate conduct that Ms. Lively, her employees and other cast and crew experienced at the hands of Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath. After the list below was reviewed and discussed in its entirety, all parties present agreed that the outlined conduct would cease:

1. No more showing nude videos or images of women, including producer’s wife, to BL and/or her employees.
2. No more mention of Mr Baldoni’s or Mr Heath’s previous “pornography addiction” or BL’s lack of pornography consumption to BL or to other crew members.
3. No more discussions to BL and/or her employees about personal experiences with sex, including as it relates to spouses or others.
4. No more mention to BL or her employees of personal times that physical consent was not given in sexual acts, as either the abuser or the abused.
5. No more descriptions of their own genitalia to BL.
6. No more jokes or disparaging comments to be made to BL and/or her employees about HR complaints Wayfarer has already received on set, or about “missing the HR meeting.”
7. No more inquiries by Mr Baldoni to BL trainer without her knowledge or consent to disclose her weight.
8. No more mention by Mr Baldoni of him “speaking to” BL’s dead father.
9. No more pressing by Mr Baldoni for BL to disclose her religious beliefs, or unsolicited sharing of his.
10. If BL and/or her infant is exposed to COVID again, BL must be provided with immediate notice as soon as Wayfarer or any other producers become aware of such exposure, without her needing to uncover days later herself.
11. An intimacy coordinator must be present at all times when BL is on set in scenes with Mr. Baldoni.

- 12.No more personal, physical touching of, or sexual comments by, Mr Baldoni or Mr Heath to be tolerated by BL and/or any of her employees, as well as any female cast or crew without their express consent.
 - 13.No more improvising of kissing. All intimate touch must be choreographed in advance with BL and an intimacy coordinator. No biting or sucking of lip without BL consent. And all intimate on camera touch and conversations must be "in character", not spoken from Mr Baldoni to BL personally.
 - 14.BL to have a representative on set at all times and with a monitor during scenes involving nudity, sexual activity, or violence with Mr Baldoni.
 - 15.All actors participating with BL in intimate scenes involving her being in any state of nudity or simulated nudity must be classified as active, working actors, not "friends" of the director or producers, and must be pre-approved by BL.
 - 16.No more filming of any BL nudity without a fully-executed, SAG-compliant nudity rider in place. Any such footage already shot without this rider in place and in direct violation of SAG requirements may not be used without BL's and her legal representatives prior, written consent.
 - 17.Any scene by BL, or another performer depicting the character of "Lily," that involves nudity or simulated sex must be conducted strictly in accordance with the above-referenced nudity rider and must adhere to the BL-approved script.
 - 18.An intimacy coordinator must be on set for all scenes involving nudity and/or simulated sex and must have a monitor to ensure compliance.
 - 19.No monitors to be viewed or accessible on set, or remotely, during closed set scenes except by BL-approved essential crew and personnel.
- 20.No more entering, attempting to enter, interrupting, pressuring or asking BL to enter her trailer or the makeup trailer by Mr Heath or Mr Baldoni while she is nude, for any reason.
 - 21.No more private, multi hour meetings in BL's trailer, with Mr Baldoni crying, with no outside BL appointed representative to monitor.
 - 22.No more pressing by Mr Baldoni to sage any of BL's employees.
 - 23.Producer Alex Saks to be given standard rights, inclusion, and authority per her job description and as represented to BL when signing on.
 - 24.Sony must have an active, daily role in overseeing physical production for the remainder of the film to monitor safety for cast and crew, schedule, logistics, problem solving and creative.
 - 25.Engagement of an experienced producer to supervise the safety of the cast and crew, schedule, logistics, problem solving and creative for the remainder of the shoot. (examples: Todd Lieberman, Elizabeth Cantillon, Miri Yoon, Lynette Howell).
 - 26.Engagement of a BL-approved, A-list stunt double to perform Lily in scenes with Mr Baldoni involving rape and/or violence. BL to perform only close-up work or work from a BL pre-approved shot list in scenes with Mr Baldoni involving sexual violence.
 - 27.No more adding of sex scenes, oral sex, or on camera climaxing by BL outside the scope of the script BL approved when signing onto the project.
 - 28.No more asking or pressuring BL to cross physical picket lines.
 - 29.No more retaliatory or abusive behavior to BL for raising concerns or requesting safeguards
 - 30.An in-person meeting before production resumes with Mr Baldoni, Mr Heath, Ms Saks, the Sony representative, the new producer, BL, and BL's spouse Ryan Reynolds to confirm and approve a plan for implementation of the above that will be adhered to for the physical and emotional safety of BL, her employees and all the cast and crew moving forward.

4. This meeting was an essential step in a process the parties had agreed to several months before to allow the cast and crew to safely resume production of the Film. In mid-November 2023, the parties had agreed in writing to implement a list of protections enumerated in a contract entitled "Protections for Return to Production," attached hereto as Exhibit A, which included seventeen provisions designed to require Wayfarer to cease the on-set behavior of Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath. One of those provisions required an "all-hands meeting" to "confirm and approve a plan for the implementation of [certain protections] that will be adhered to for the physical and emotional safety of [Ms. Lively], her employees and all cast and crew moving forward.” Exhibit A ¶ 17. After receiving the document, Wayfarer responded that “Wayfarer, Sony and Production respectfully acknowledge that [Ms. Lively] has concerns regarding safety, professionalism and workplace culture. Although our perspective differs in many aspects, ensuring a safe environment for all is paramount, irrespective of differing viewpoints. Regarding your outlined requests, we find most of them not only reasonable but also essential for the benefit of all parties involved.”¹

5. At the end of the January 4 meeting, having discussed at length the details of concerns that had been expressed by Ms. Lively and others, the parties agreed to implement and follow the Protections for Return to Production to ensure that the Film could be completed, marketed, and released safely and successfully. And it was. Production of the Film resumed on January 5, and concluded on February 9, 2024. The Film has been a resounding success.

6. Leading up to and in connection with the release of the Film, during the summer of 2024, Ms. Lively and fellow cast members promoted the Film in accordance with the Marketing Plan created and delivered by the Film’s distributor Sony, which is summarized in the “talking points” attached hereto as Exhibit C. Ms. Lively and other cast members were under a contractual obligation to render promotional services in accordance with the Marketing Plan. The Marketing Plan directed the cast to “[f]ocus more on Lily’s strength and resilience as opposed to describing the film as a story about domestic violence” and to “[a]void talking about this film that makes it feel sad or heavy [sic—it’s a story of hope.” See Exhibit C at 2.²

7. In the days leading up to the Film’s release, Mr. Baldoni abruptly pivoted away from the Film’s Marketing Plan and the types of publicity activities in which he had previously participated. What the public did not know was that Mr. Baldoni and his team did so in an effort to explain why many of the Film’s cast and crew had unfollowed Mr. Baldoni on social media and were not appearing with him in public. To that end, he and his team used domestic violence “survivor content” to protect his public image, as described in further detail below. See ¶¶ 83-88.

² Mr. Baldoni himself launched the Marketing Plan by hosting the first press event in early May 2024 (a month before any other cast did any promotion of the film).

8. What the public also did not know was that this was the beginning of a multi-tiered plan that Mr. Baldoni and his team described as “social manipulation” designed to “destroy” Ms. Lively’s reputation. That plan was backed by virtually unlimited resources. Wayfarer’s co-founder, co-chairman and leading financier is multi-billionaire Steve Sarowitz, who divulged at the Film’s New York premiere on August 6, 2024, that he was prepared to spend $100 million to ruin the lives of Ms. Lively and her family. With that backing, Mr. Baldoni and his Wayfarer associates embarked on a sophisticated press and digital plan in retaliation for Ms. Lively exercising her legally-protected right to speak up about their misconduct on the set, with the additional objective of intimidating her and anyone else from revealing in public what actually occurred.

9. On July 31, 2024, following the recommendation of their publicist, Jennifer Abel, Wayfarer, and Mr. Baldoni retained a crisis communications specialist named Melissa Nathan, and her company The Agency Group PR LLC (“TAG”). Ms. Nathan delivered a proposal to Mr. Baldoni, which included “[a] website (to discuss), full reddit, full social account take downs, full social crisis team on hand for anything – engage with audiences in the right way, start threads of theories (discuss) this is the way to be fully 100% protected.” Ms. Nathan also proposed the “creation of social fan engagement to go back and forth with any negative accounts, helping to change [sic] narrative and stay on track.” Per Ms. Nathan, “All of this will be most importantly untraceable.” As Ms. Abel described it, the plan was to engage in “social media mitigation and proactive fan posting to counter the negative” as well as “social manipulation.”³

10. This plan went well beyond standard crisis PR. What Ms. Nathan proposed included a practice known as “Astroturfing,” which has been defined as “the practice of publishing opinions or comments on the internet, in the media, etc. that appear to come from ordinary members of the public but actually come from a particular company or political group.”⁴

11. On August 2, 2024, TAG circulated a “SCENARIO PLANNING” document to Mr.

³ Ms. Lively obtained the communications set forth in this Complaint through legal process, including a civil subpoena.

⁴ Astroturfing. CAMBRIDGE DICTIONARY, <https://dictionary.cambridge.org/us/dictionary/english/astroturfing> (last visited Dec. 16, 2024); see also Astroturfing, WIKIPEDIA, <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Astroturfing> (last visited Dec. 19, 2024) (“Astroturfing is the deceptive practice of hiding the sponsors of an orchestrated message or organization (e.g., political, advertising, religious, or public relations) to make it appear as though it originates from, and is supported by, unsolicited grassroots participants. It is a practice intended to give the statements or organizations credibility by withholding information about the source’s financial backers.”).

Baldoni, Mr. Heath, and others, which described preparations and strategy “should [Ms. Lively] and her team make her grievances public,” (the “Scenario Planning Document”), and is attached hereto as Exhibit D. To “get ahead of this narrative,” Ms. Nathan’s plan proposed strategies to advance misleading counternarratives, including pushing Nathan’s narrative that Ms. Lively had “less than favorable reputation,” proposing to “explore planting stories about the weaponization of feminism...,” and misleadingly blaming Ms. Lively for production members’ job losses. See Exhibit D at 2-3.

12. Initially, Mr. Baldoni expressed concerns that TAG’s written plan was insufficiently aggressive to “protect” him. Writing to Mr. Heath and Ms. Abel, he said he was “[n]ot in love with the document they sent – Not sure I’m feeling the protection I felt on the call” with Ms. Nathan and her colleagues. In response, Mr. Heath attempted to reassure Mr. Baldoni that they had found the right people for his campaign. In Mr. Heath’s words, “the most important part of this is how quickly they can shut things down and place stories in your favor.”

1 13. Later that day, Ms. Abel and Ms. Nathan exchanged the following text messages,
 2 expressing that Mr. Baldoni “wants to feel like [Ms. Lively] can be buried.” Ms. Abel and Ms. Nathan
 3 agreed that, of course, they would do just that, but could not say so in writing. “We can’t write it down
 4 to him. We can’t write we will destroy her.” “Imagine if a document saying all the things that he wants
 5 ends up in the wrong hands.”

15. A few days later, on August 5, 2024, Mr. Baldoni set the narrative for the social media campaign, sending Ms. Abel a screenshot of a thread on X that had accused another female celebrity of bullying women. Mr. Baldoni stated, “this is what we would need.”

16. Ms. Abel responded that she had just “spoke[n] to Melissa about this... about what we discussed last night for social and digital.” Ms. Abel added, “Focus on reddit, TikTok, IG.” With reassurance that Ms. Lively would be “destroy[ed]” and “buried,” Wayfarer and Mr. Baldoni directed Ms. Nathan and her team to actively engage in their retaliatory “social manipulation” campaign.

17. In the weeks and months that followed—with the direction and approval of Wayfarer and Mr. Baldoni—the team engaged in a sophisticated, coordinated, and well-financed retaliation plan.

18. The retaliation campaign relied on more than just publicists and crisis managers spinning stories. They also retained subcontractors, including a Texas-based contractor named Jed Wallace, who weaponized a digital army around the country from New York to Los Angeles to create, seed, and promote content that appeared to be authentic on social media platforms and internet chat forums. The Baldoni-Wayfarer team would then feed pieces of this manufactured content to unwitting reporters, making content go viral in order to influence public opinion and thereby cause an organic pile-on. To safeguard against the risk of Ms. Lively ever revealing the truth about Mr. Baldoni, the Baldoni-Wayfarer team created, planted, amplified, and boosted content designed to eviscerate Ms. Lively's credibility. They engaged in the same techniques to bolster Mr. Baldoni's credibility and suppress any negative content about him.

19. On August 10, the day after release of the Film, Ms. Nathan's team reported that they had "started to see shift on social, due largely to Jed and his team's efforts to shift the narrative" against Ms. Lively.

24. As their own words reveal, the purpose of this “social manipulation” plan was two-fold: it aimed to both (a) conceal the pattern of harassment and other misconduct by Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath, and Wayfarer, and (b) retaliate against Ms. Lively by battering her image, harming her businesses, and causing her and her family severe emotional harm. Millions of people (including many reporters and influencers) who saw these planted stories, social media posts, and other online content had no idea they were unwitting consumers of a crisis PR, astroturfing, and digital retaliation campaign created and funded by Mr. Baldoni and Wayfarer to hurt Ms. Lively. That is precisely the goal of an astroturfing campaign—to light the fire and continue to stoke conversations secretly, blurring the line between authentic and manufactured content, and creating viral public takedowns.

25. As laid out in this Complaint, the Baldoni-Wayfarer-led public attack of Ms. Lively was the intended result of a carefully crafted, coordinated, and resourced retaliatory scheme to silence her, and others, from speaking out about the hostile environment that Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath created. As such, it was not only unconscionable and a breach of contract, but also illegal under both state and federal law. Ms. Lively brings this action to hold Wayfarer and its leaders, Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath, and Mr. Sarowitz, accountable for the ongoing⁵ retaliation threats and harm they have caused Ms. Lively, other cast and crew and all of their families.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Justin Baldoni and Jamey Heath of Wayfarer Engage in Inappropriate and Unwelcome Behavior Toward Ms. Lively and Others on the Set of It Ends with Us.

26. Mr. Baldoni launched Wayfarer Studios along with Mr. Sarowitz in 2020. Mr. Heath serves as Wayfarer’s Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Sarowitz is a leading financier of Wayfarer, and he, Mr. Heath, and Mr. Baldoni are all close personal friends. Under the Wayfarer banner, Mr. Baldoni

⁵ Ms. Lively is informed and believes that Mr. Baldoni and his associates have additional astroturfing plans that they have prepared and are ready to launch at a moment’s notice.

1 and Mr. Heath have many platforms, including the Man Enough podcast, which they co-host. Mr. Baldoni
 2 and Mr. Heath have positioned Wayfarer as a male-feminist platform that explores gender roles,
 3 dismantles toxic masculinity, and creates a safer and judgment-free society for women.

4 27. Mr. Baldoni serves not only as the Co-Founder and Co-Chairman of the Studio that
 5 financed and ran production on It Ends With Us, he also served as Director, Executive Producer, and co-
 6 lead Actor playing the role of Ryle Kincaid. As Studio Head and Director, all actors, crew, and staff on 7 the film—including Ms. Lively—answered to Mr. Baldoni. In his words, he was “the leader” who sat “at 8 the top of this totem pole . . .” While Sony was the distributor releasing the Film, Wayfarer was 9 responsible for the production, and Wayfarer was led by Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath.
 10

11 28. Production of the Film began in early May 2023, and lasted until it was suspended
 12 in mid-June 2023 due to the Writers Guild of America (“WGA”) strike.
 13

14 29. During that time, Ms. Lively and other cast and crew experienced invasive, 15 unwelcome, unprofessional and sexually inappropriate behavior by Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath. Because 16 Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath held all leadership positions on the production, they answered to no one, and 17 brushed off or ignored the concerns Ms. Lively and others expressed.

18 a. Mr. Baldoni ignored well-established industry protocols in filming intimate scenes, 19 and exploited the lack of controls on set to behave inappropriately.

20 30. Wayfarer failed to adhere to guild rules, as well as Ms. Lively’s contract, and 21 standard industry safety protocols with respect to nudity and intimate scenes, which the Screen Actors
 22 Guild and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (“SAG-AFTRA”) acknowledges
 23 “place performers in uniquely vulnerable situations.”⁶ Such safeguards ignored by Wayfarer include:
 24 providing performers with appropriate notice of nudity and simulated sex and ensuring that (i) consent is 25 given free of pressure or coercion, (ii) signed “nudity riders” are in place, spelling out the parameters of 26 nudity or simulated sex scenes, (iii) “safe and secure working conditions that are not detrimental to [a

1 performer's] health, safety, morals and career,"⁷ and (iv) the use of "intimacy coordinators" to observe
2 intimate scenes.

3 31. Without these protections in place, Mr. Baldoni improvised physical intimacy that
4 had not been rehearsed, choreographed, or discussed with Ms. Lively, with no intimacy coordinator
5 involved. For instance, Mr. Baldoni discreetly bit and sucked on Ms. Lively's lower lip during a scene in 6 which he improvised numerous kisses on each take. Mr. Baldoni insisted on shooting the full scene over
7 and over again, well beyond what would have been required on an ordinary set, and without advance
8 notice or consent.

10 32. On another occasion, Mr. Baldoni and Ms. Lively were filming a slow dance scene
11 for a montage in which no sound was recorded. Mr. Baldoni chose to let the camera roll and have them
12 perform the scene, but did not act in character as Ryle; instead, he spoke to Ms. Lively out of character as 13 himself. At one point, he leaned forward and slowly dragged his lips from her ear and down her neck as 14 he said, "it smells so good." None of this was remotely in character, or based on any dialogue in the script,
15 and nothing needed to be said because, again, there was no sound—Mr. Baldoni was caressing Mr. Lively
16 with his mouth in a way that had nothing to do with their roles. When Ms. Lively later objected to this
17 behavior, Ms. Baldoni's response was, "I'm not even attracted to you."
18

19 b. Mr. Baldoni inserted improvised gratuitous sexual content and/or scenes involving 20 nudity into the film (including for an underage character) in highly unsettling ways.

21 33. After Ms. Lively signed onto the movie based on a draft of the script, Mr. Baldoni, 22 without Ms. Lively's knowledge or consent, personally added graphic content, including a scene in which 23 Ms. Lively was to orgasm on-camera.
24

25 34. When Ms. Lively objected to these additions, Mr. Baldoni insisted he had added
26 them because he was making the Film "through the female gaze." Although he agreed to remove the 27 scenes, he made a last-ditch attempt to keep one in which the couple orgasm together on their wedding
28

1 night, which he said was important to him because he and his partner climax simultaneously during
2 intercourse. Mr. Baldoni then intrusively asked Ms. Lively whether she and her husband climax
3 simultaneously during intercourse, which Ms. Lively found invasive and refused to discuss.

4 35. On the day of shooting the scene in which Ms. Lively's character gives birth, Mr.
5 Baldoni and Mr. Heath suddenly pressured Ms. Lively to simulate full nudity, despite no mention of nudity
6 for this scene in the script, her contract, or in previous creative discussions. Mr. Baldoni insisted to Ms.
7 Lively that women give birth naked, and that his wife had "ripped her clothes off" during labor. He 8 claimed it was "not normal" for women to remain in their hospital gowns while giving birth. Ms. Lively
9 disagreed, but felt forced into a compromise that she would be naked from below the chest down.⁸

11 36. When the birth scene was filmed, the set was chaotic, crowded and utterly lacking 12 in standard industry protections for filming nude scenes—such as choreographing the scene with an 13 intimacy coordinator, having a signed nudity rider, or simply turning off the monitors so the scene was 14 not broadcast to all crew on set (and on their personal phones and iPad). Mr. Heath and Mr. Baldoni also 15 failed to close the set, allowing non-essential crew to pass through while Ms. Lively was mostly nude with 16 her legs spread wide in stirrups and only a small piece of fabric covering her genitalia. Among the non-
17 essential persons present that day was Wayfarer co-Chairman Mr. Sarowitz, who flew in for one of his 18 few set visits. Ms. Lively was not provided with anything to cover herself with between takes until after 19 she had made multiple requests. Ms. Lively became even more alarmed when Mr. Baldoni introduced his 20 "best friend" to play the role of the OBGYN, when ordinarily, a small role of this nature would be filled
21 by a local actor. Ms. Lively felt that the selection of Mr. Baldoni's friend for this intimate role, in which 22 the actor's face and hands were in close proximity to her nearly nude genitalia for a birth scene, was 23 invasive and humiliating.
25
26
27

28 ⁸ Generally, nudity below the waist in film utilizes a small piece of nude fabric glued around the female actor's genitalia to provide some minimal privacy without disturbing the shot (because that fabric is not able to have visible straps from profile camera angles).

1 37. To add insult to injury, Mr. Heath approached Ms. Lively and her assistant on set
2 and started playing a video of a fully nude woman with her legs spread apart. Ms. Lively thought he was 3 showing her pornography and stopped him. Mr. Heath explained that the video was his wife giving birth.
4 Ms. Lively was alarmed and asked Mr. Heath if his wife knew he was sharing the video, to which he
5 replied “She isn’t weird about this stuff,” as if Ms. Lively was weird for not welcoming it. Ms. Lively
6 and her assistant excused themselves, stunned that Mr. Heath had shown them a nude video.

8 38. Mr. Baldoni added a detailed scene to the Film in which the underage version of 9 Ms. Lively’s character, Lily, loses her virginity. In both the book and the script for the film, there was no
10 sex scene; instead, the details about this moment were left to the audience’s imagination. But Mr. Baldoni,
11 added in considerable details, including both dialogue between Young Lily and her boyfriend (Atlas)
12 about the loss of her virginity, as well as a simulated sex scene in which Mr. Baldoni filmed, and included
13 in his initial cut of the Film, a close up of Young Lily’s face, accompanied by an audible gasp at the 14 moment of penetration. Ms. Lively was informed that when this scene was shot, after Mr. Baldoni called 15 “cut,” he walked over to the actors and said, “I know I’m not supposed to say this, but that was hot,” and,
16 “did you two practice this before?”

18 c. Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath discussed their personal sexual experiences and previous 19 porn addiction, and tried to pressure Ms. Lively to reveal details about her intimate 20 life.

21 39. During a car ride with Ms. Lively, her assistant and driver, Mr. Baldoni claimed to 22 Ms. Lively that he had been sexually abused by a former girlfriend (which he has since shared publicly).
23 At the end this story, Mr. Baldoni shared that it had caused him to reexamine his past. He then said: “Did 24 I always ask for consent? No. Did I always listen when they said no? No.” Mr. Baldoni claimed this 25 was an example of how we all have things from which we can learn and grow. Ms. Lively was unsettled
26 by Mr. Baldoni’s suggestion that he had engaged in sexual conduct without consent. When Ms. Lively 27 exited the car, her driver immediately remarked that he did not want Ms. Lively to be alone with Mr.
28 Baldoni going forward.

1 40. On the first day of production, Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath described their past
2 sexual relationships to Ms. Lively, including that one of them used to “hook up” with a woman. Mr.
3 Baldoni said that he had decided the woman wasn’t “the one,” so then Mr. Heath had gotten together with 4 her. Ms. Lively found this description of passing along a woman to be disrespectful and disturbing.

5 41. Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath often spoke of their “previous pornography addiction.”
6 Mr. Baldoni would often reference pornography to Ms. Lively. Hoping to shut the subject down, she said
7 to him privately that she had never seen it. Later, when Mr. Baldoni was once again referencing his 8 experiences with pornography, he revealed in front of other cast and crew that Ms. Lively had never “seen
9 porn.” It was an incredible invasion of her privacy to discuss any aspect of her intimate life with the cast
10 and crew, much less reveal something that she had only told Mr. Baldoni to try to get him to stop talking 11 about the subject with her.
12

13 42. Mr. Baldoni engaged in other behaviors that were shocking and emotionally
14 distressing. For example, he claimed he could speak to the dead, and on several occasions told her that 15 he had spoken to her dead father. It was off putting and violative for Ms. Baldoni to claim a personal
16 relationship with her recently deceased father. Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath were also constantly hugging
17 and touching cast and crew. When Ms. Lively or others avoided this touching, Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath
18 would retaliate by becoming irritated, cold, and uncollaborative. The result was an unwelcoming and 19 mercurial environment for Ms. Lively, her employees, and others on set.

22 d. Mr. Baldoni objectified Ms. Lively and other women by commenting on or criticizing 23 their bodies as sex objects.

24 43. Mr. Baldoni often referred to women in the workplace as “sexy.” When they 25 expressed discomfort, Mr. Baldoni would deflect or try to pass it off, which undermined Ms. Lively and 26 others’ concerns. For example, on one occasion that Ms. Lively observed, he told a female cast member 27 that her leather pants looked “sexy” when she arrived to the set. When she rebuffed his comment because 28

1 she was uncomfortable, rather than apologizing, he brushed it off with “I can say that because my wife is
2 here today.” Ms. Lively felt embarrassed witnessing this kind of commentary, as did others.

3 44. On another day, Ms. Lively wore a low-cut dress to facilitate breast feeding, but 4 had it covered up with a coat. When the jacket briefly popped open at one point to reveal the dress, Mr.
5 Baldoni commented about how much he liked her outfit, which flustered Ms. Lively. Later that day, Mr.
6 Baldoni pressured Ms. Lively (who was in her pre-approved wardrobe) to remove her coat in front of the 7 crew and multiple background actors in a packed bar. He said wanted to see her “onesie” under the coat
8 because it was zipped low to reveal her lace bra. Consistent with past practice, he said, “I think you look
9 sexy” in a tone that made her feel ogled and exposed. With other female cast present, she said, “that’s not 10 what I’m going for.” He bristled and replied, “I’m sorry, hot.” Deeply uncomfortable, Ms. Lively said,
11 “not that either.” Mr. Baldoni, responded sarcastically, “I guess I missed the HR meeting,” and walked
12 away. Another woman on the production spoke to Ms. Lively afterward to offer empathy and to share her 13 own similar experiences with Mr. Baldoni commenting about her in sexual terms.
15

16 45. As result of Mr. Baldoni’s behavior, on May 29, 2023, another cast member lodged 17 a sexual harassment complaint about Mr. Baldoni’s “gross” and “unwanted comment[s]” towards her and 18 others.

19 46. While, on the one hand, Mr. Baldoni was objectifying Ms. Lively as a sex object, 20 on the other hand he went out of his way to message criticisms of her age and weight, neither of which
21 she could change during filming. On the second day of filming, for example, Mr. Baldoni made the rest
22 of the cast and crew wait for hours while he cried in Ms. Lively’s dressing room, claiming social media
23 commentators were saying that Ms. Lively looked old and unattractive based on paparazzi photos from 24 the set. She tried to reassure him that she should look authentic in the scenes depicted in the photos, which 25 were just after her character had been abused by her fictional husband, rather than “hot”—Mr. Baldoni, 26 however, appeared focused on Ms. Lively’s sexual appeal above all else. His lengthy outburst caused a 27 delay in shooting, forcing an emotional scene to be shot haphazardly.
28

1 47. To make matters worse, when Ms. Lively tried to have a meeting with Mr. Heath
2 and the other producers to discuss Mr. Baldoni's unprofessional behavior described above, that meeting
3 turned into yet another violation. Rather than an ordinary meeting time and place, Mr. Heath arrived
4 unannounced at Ms. Lively's hair and makeup trailer while she was topless and having body makeup
5 removed by makeup artists. Ms. Lively told Mr. Heath that she was almost done and they could meet
6 once she was clothed. Mr. Heath, however, insisted that if she didn't allow him into her trailer to speak
7 to him at that moment, then there would be no meeting with the other producers. Ms. Lively reluctantly
8 agreed, but asked that Mr. Heath keep his back turned. A few minutes into the conversation, Ms. Lively
9 noticed that Mr. Heath was staring directly at her while she was topless. When she called him out, Mr.
10 Heath brushed it off as a habit of wanting to look at a person while speaking to them. Ms. Lively and her 11 hair and makeup artists were all deeply disturbed by this interaction on just the second day of filming.

12 48. Throughout filming, Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath invaded Ms. Lively's privacy by 13 entering her makeup trailer uninvited while she was undressed, including when she was breastfeeding her
14 infant child. Ms. Lively often had to work while breastfeeding, which she felt comfortable doing so long
15 as she was given the time and space to cover herself. She did this frequently, because she was not given
16 breaks to feed her baby,⁹ but Ms. Lively did not expect or consent to anyone entering her private spaces
17 while topless, exposed, and vulnerable with her newborn, or during body makeup application or removal.
18 Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath both showed a shocking lack of boundaries by invading her personal space
19 when she was undressed and vulnerable.

20 49. Mr. Baldoni also routinely degraded Ms. Lively by finding back channel ways of 21 criticizing her body and weight. A few weeks before filming began and less than four months after Ms.
22 Lively had given birth to her fourth child, Ms. Lively was humiliated to learn that Mr. Baldoni secretly
23 called her fitness trainer, without her knowledge or permission, and implied that he wanted her to lose

26
27
28 ⁹ Ms. Lively was not given proper lactation breaks by Wayfarer during filming, which sometimes stretched into six hours without a break. When filming finally broke, Ms. Lively would have to run to her trailer to breastfeed. The lack of accommodation for her need to express milk caused her to develop painful mastitis.

1 weight in two weeks. Mr. Baldoni told the trainer that he had asked because he was concerned about
2 having to pick Ms. Lively up in a scene for the movie, but there was no such scene.¹⁰

3 50. When Ms. Lively caught strep throat, Mr. Baldoni offered as a “gift” to connect her
4 with an expert he had on retainer to help her with probiotics and to combat the sickness. When Ms. Lively
5 went to fill out the privacy forms, she saw the expert was not what Mr. Baldoni had represented her to be,
6 but was instead a weight-loss specialist. Ms. Lively felt, once again, that Mr. Baldoni was shaming her
7 for her body and weight.

9 51. Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath failed to implement COVID protocols when there was 10 a COVID outbreak on set. Ms. Lively was told by another producer that because Wayfarer did not have 11 insurance coverage for COVID, Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath deliberately withheld from Ms. Lively that 12 she had been exposed to COVID. Both Ms. Lively and her infant child contracted COVID from the 13 outbreak.
14

15 B. Ms. Lively And Others Lodge Grievances Regarding the Conduct of Mr. Baldoni and Mr.
16 Heath, Which Wayfarer Declines to Investigate.

17 52. As the studio producing the Film, Wayfarer was the employer of all the cast and 18 crew and was thus responsible for ensuring workplace safety on set.

19 53. However, Wayfarer failed to provide Ms. Lively with even rudimentary 20 employment protections, such an employee handbook, sexual harassment policy, information or any 21 training on sexual harassment, discrimination or respectful workplace expectations.

22 54. Wayfarer also failed to provide Ms. Lively information about the process and 23 procedure for filing human resources (“HR”) complaints.
24

25 55. As the producer and owner of the Film, Wayfarer was legally obligated to address
26 HR-related concerns or complaints. To Ms. Lively’s knowledge, however, Wayfarer lacked any process
27
28

¹⁰ In later text messages sent to his team, Mr. Baldoni referred to Ms. Lively’s trainer as “a damn spy” and sought to plant stories to portray his concerns as being motivated by his lower back pain.

1 for responding to complaints about its leadership, Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath, who plainly were not going
2 to investigate themselves.

3 56. On May 26, 2023, Ms. Lively told a representative of Sony that she wanted to file
4 an HR complaint about Mr. Baldoni's and Mr. Heath's misconduct. The Sony representative told Ms.
5 Lively that Sony, as the distributor of the film, was not empowered to control Mr. Baldoni or Mr. Heath's
6 behavior on set, and that such concerns must be raised with Wayfarer, the studio responsible for the 7 production.

9 57. Wayfarer, Mr. Baldoni, and Mr. Heath received or were aware of a number of HR
10 grievances regarding their conduct. For example, on the first day of filming, while attempting to hug Ms.
11 Lively's employee, Mr. Heath said "I don't even know if we're allowed to do this. It's day one and we 12 have an HR report already."
13

14 58. Additionally, early in the production, another actress made a complaint about Mr.
15 Baldoni's comments on her appearance. Mr. Baldoni expressly acknowledged her concerns in writing,
16 stating he would "adjust accordingly." Yet on June 8, 2023, that actress informed Ms. Lively that "outside
17 of anything in a scene, I actually cannot talk to Justin at all." Mr. Baldoni later expressed suspicion 18 regarding Ms. Lively's friendship with this actress, as if they were colluding against him.
19

20 59. As described above, Ms. Lively and others attempted to raise concerns to Mr.
21 Baldoni and Mr. Heath regarding certain of the conduct described above during filming, but they were not 22 addressed given the futility of asking Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath to address their own behavior.

23 60. After unsuccessfully attempting to raise concerns with Sony, Ms. Lively expressly 24 told Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath that there were serious HR problems on set. Mr. Heath responded that 25 they knew, implying that someone had mentioned to them that Ms. Lively had raised concerns. In 26 response, Mr. Heath told Ms. Lively that he thought she had wanted to see the nude video of his wife.
27

28 61. In the same conversation, when Ms. Lively expressed her upset Mr. Heath and Mr.
Baldoni had hidden the fact that she had been exposed to a COVID outbreak on set from which she and

1 her infant contracted COVID. Instead of acknowledging responsibility and committing to safety moving
2 forward, they expressed upset over production days missed and resulting costs.

3 62. Despite receiving multiple, detailed reports by Ms. Lively and others about Mr.
4 Baldoni and Mr. Heath's misconduct, Wayfarer failed to investigate those reports or to otherwise institute
5 protections for the cast. This is so even though the incidents discussed above, among others, did not take 6 place in isolation and many if not all were witnessed by others.

8 63. By these and other behaviors, Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath and Wayfarer engaged in 9 harassing conduct and failed their obligations to investigate complaints of workplace harassment, to 10 prevent inappropriate and harassing behaviors on set, and to provide avenues for cast and crew members
11 to safely raise concerns to neutral parties so that they could be investigated and appropriately addressed.

12 C. The Parties Negotiate A Contract Rider regarding Mr. Baldoni's and Mr. Heath's Conduct
13 on the Set of It Ends with Us.

14 64. On May 2, 2023, the Writers Guild of America ("WGA"), made up of two 15 American labor unions representing more than 16,000 writers in film, television, radio, and online media,
16 went on strike in connection with a labor dispute with the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television
17 Producers.

19 65. The Film temporarily halted production in June 2023 as a result of WGA picketing.
20 On June 15, 2023, Wayfarer and Mr. Baldoni announced the continued halted production of the Film due 21 to the ongoing WGA strike and the lost days experienced from picketing.

22 66. While the WGA strike was underway, on July 14, 2023, the American actor's union
23 known as SAG-AFTRA, a labor union that represents about 160,000 people in the entertainment industry,
24 including actors, recording artists, radio personalities and other media professionals, began to strike due
25 to a labor dispute with the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers.

26
27 67. The WGA strike ended on September 27, 2023, and the SAG-AFTRA strike ended
28 on November 9, 2023.

1 68. Before returning to production, Ms. Lively attempted to address and resolve the 2 problems on set and requested that Wayfarer agree to address the conditions described above.

3 69. On November 9, 2023, Ms. Lively's attorneys provided Wayfarer's attorney with 4 a document entitled "Protections for Return to Production," attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5 70. In conveying the Protections for Return to Production document, Ms. Lively
6 requested that Wayfarer agree to implement a plan that would enable everyone to return to work and 7 complete the Film with adequate protections to ensure a safe set moving forward.

8 71. On November 11, 2023, counsel for Wayfarer indicated that "Wayfarer, Sony and 9 Production respectfully acknowledge that your client has concerns regarding safety, professionalism and 10 workplace culture. Although our perspective differs in many aspects, ensuring a safe environment for all 11 involved is paramount, irrespective of differing viewpoints. Regarding your outlined requests, we find 12 most of them not only reasonable but also essential for the benefit of all parties involved."
13

14 72. On November 15, 2023, Wayfarer, through It Ends With US Movie, LLC, agreed
15 to the terms in a contractual rider, executed on January 19, 2024, and attached hereto as Exhibit B.

16 73. Among the contract rider's provisions:

17 (a) The first provision required that "An intimacy coordinator must be present at all 18 times when [Ms. Lively] is on set."
19

20 (b) The second provision required that, "With respect to Artist, any and all rehearsal, 21 filming, reviewing of video playback or dailies and/or any other interaction with any scene involving
22 simulated sex, nudity and/or partial nudity shall be restricted to those persons with essential business
23 reasons for being present ("Essential Personnel") as approved by [Ms. Lively] and Todd Black as further 24 described in the nudity rider attached as Schedule I [] ("Nudity Rider")."

26 (c) The third provision required that "There is to be no spontaneous improvising of any 27 scenes involving intimate/sexual physical touching, simulated sex, or nudity with respect to [Ms.
28 Lively]. Scenes involving [Ms. Lively] that involves [sic] kissing, depictions of sexual intercourse, or any

1 other intimate/sexual physical touching must be contained in the screenplay (i.e., the most up to date draft
 2 approved by [Ms. Lively] in writing), choreographed in advance in the presence of the intimacy
 3 coordinator, and may only proceed as choreographed with the consent of all participants in advance.”

4 (d) The fourth provision required that “Physical touching and/or comments on [Ms.
 5 Lively]’s physical appearance must only be done/made in connection with the character and scene work,
 6 not as to [Ms. Lively] personally. Except as written into the screenplay or as strictly required in connection
 7 with make-up or costume preparation, there is to be no physical touching (including hugging) of [Ms.
 8 Lively], her on-set personnel and/or her employees.”

10 (e) The fifth provision required that “There are to be no discussions with [Ms. Lively]
 11 of personal experiences with sex or nudity, including as it relates to conduct with spouses or others.”

12 (f) The sixth provision required that “No one will enter, attempt to enter, interrupt,
 13 pressure, or request entrance to [Ms. Lively]’s trailer while she is in a state of undress for any reason.”

15 (g) The seventh provision required that “There shall be no rehearsal or filming of [Ms.
 16 Lively] (including [Ms. Lively]’s approved body double) of any nudity, partial nudity, and/or simulated
 17 sex except as expressly permitted in accordance with the Nudity Rider. Any such footage of [Ms. Lively]
 18 (or [Ms. Lively]’s body double) previously shot without the Nudity Rider in place may not be used without 19 [Ms. Lively]’s and her legal representatives’ prior, written consent.”

21 (h) The tenth provision required that “There shall be no retaliation of any kind against 22 [Ms. Lively] for raising concerns about the conduct described in this letter or for these 23 requirements. Any changes in attitude, sarcasm, marginalization or other negative behavior, either on 24 set or otherwise, including during publicity and promotional work, as a result of these requests is 25 retaliatory and unacceptable, and will be met with immediate action.”

26 (i) The twelfth provision required that “Wayfarer will engage an additional,
 27 experienced A-level producer, approved by [Ms. Lively] (Todd Black is hereby approved) (the ”Approved
 28 Producer), to actively supervise the production, including monitoring the safety of the cast and crew,

1 ensuring compliance with the schedule and overseeing logistics, problem solving and creative issues
2 provided that Company shall have the right to approve the agreement with the Approved Producer.”

3 (j) The fifteenth provision required that “Any rehearsal or shooting involving [Ms.
4 Lively], or any other performer depicting the character of “Lily,” that involves nudity (including partial 5 nudity) or simulated sex must be conducted strictly in accordance with the Nudity Rider and must adhere 6 to the approved script.”

8 (k) The sixteenth provision provided that “Any and all day players that participate in 9 any way in scenes with [Ms. Lively] involving nudity, partial nudity and/or simulated sex must be engaged 10 through customary industry talent agencies and not through personal connections of the director and/or 11 producer.”

12 (l) The seventeenth provision required that “At [Ms. Lively]’s election, an all-hands,
13 in-person meeting before production resumes will include the director, the existing producers, the Sony
14 representative, the Approved Producer, [Ms. Lively] and [Ms. Lively]’s designated representatives to 15 confirm and approve a plan for implementation of the above that will be adhered to for the physical and 16 emotional safety of [Ms. Lively], her employees and all cast and crew moving forward.

18 74. The “all-hands, in-person” meeting provided for in the contract rider occurred on 19 January 4, 2024, before production resumed, as described above. The meeting was attended by Mr.
20 Baldoni, Mr. Heath, producer Alex Saks, producer Todd Black, and Sony’s Ange Gianetti, as well as Ms.
21 Lively and her husband, who attended at Ms. Lively’s request as another designated representative (as 22 provided for in the contract) given the subject matter of the meeting.

23
24 75. At the January 4, 2024 meeting, the parties discussed a list of twenty examples of 25 the behaviors that gave rise to the contract rider from her contemporaneous notes. These behaviors are 26 listed in full earlier in this Complaint at Paragraph 3.

27 76. Neither Mr. Baldoni nor Mr. Heath denied the veracity of Ms. Lively’s examples.
28

1 77. Ms. Lively requested that Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath agree that such behaviors
2 would no longer take place, as memorialized in the language of the Rider, and Mr. Baldoni and Mr. Heath 3 agreed.

4 D. Production Concluded and Ms. Lively and Other Cast and Crew Promoted The Film
5 According to the Marketing Plan.

6 78. Production of the Film resumed on January 5, 2024, and concluded February 9, 7 2024.

8 79. In connection with the Film's public release, Ms. Lively and the rest of the cast
9 actively promoted the Film in accordance with the Marketing Plan for the Film, attached hereto as Exhibit
10 C. Wayfarer had embraced, and on information and belief, had formally approved of, this Marketing Plan.

11 80. The Marketing Plan, and related talking points, expressly required Ms. Lively, as 12 well as all other cast and crew engaged in promotional activities, to "[f]ocus more on [her character's] 13 strength and resilience as opposed to describing the film as a story about domestic violence" and to 14 "[a]void talking about this film [sic] that makes it feel sad or heavy – it's a story of hope."

15 81. As detailed above, Ms. Lively and fellow cast members promoted the Film in 16 accordance with the talking points and Marketing Plan during appearances on red carpets, interviews,
17 press junkets, fan events, and pop-up experiences leading up to the Film's release.

18 82. Mr. Baldoni publicly embraced the Marketing Plan. In early May 2024, Mr.
19 Baldoni appeared at a floral-themed trailer launch event, which included him personally making flower
20 bouquets for influencers, a photo opportunity, and film-branded latte art. As late as July 25, 2024, Mr.
21 Baldoni appeared at a pop-up of Lily Bloom's flower shop in Century City, California, where he held a 22 long stem rose microphone and playfully gave tours of the shop to influencers. In a TikTok interview,
23 posted that day, Mr. Baldoni excitedly walks through the pop-up and states that he will be giving tours
24 "all day every day" until August 9.¹¹

83. In advance of the release of the Film, nearly all cast members chose to appear in public separately from Mr. Baldoni given his on-set behavior. Mr. Baldoni became concerned that the public would discover that “something is much bigger under the surface,” on information and belief, alluding to the complaints lodged by Ms. Lively and others.

84. At that point, Mr. Baldoni pivoted away from the Film’s Marketing Plan to explain his absence from the rest of the cast. He shifted his focus away from a message of female triumph, to instead capitalize on female trauma. After the Film’s premiere, Mr. Baldoni changed his Instagram profile, cancelled lighthearted social media posts, and instructed his team to look for survivors reactions and support—all in an effort to quickly shift his own public narrative to focus solely on survivors and domestic violence organizations.

85. Ms. Abel cautioned Mr. Baldoni that this shift might be “too drastic too soon.” Still, Mr. Baldoni insisted on a “Tik Tok strategy” and that his promotional activities for the Film should seek to amplify what he described as “survivor content.”

From: Justin Baldoni
To: Jennifer Abel (owner)

Hey just landed
What is the Tik Tok strategy.
I'd like you guys to start posting me ONLY talking about domestic violence and clips and why this movie is so important

Priority: Normal

08/08/2024 19:30:16(UTC+0)

86. The team followed Mr. Baldoni's instruction. For her part, Ms. Abel concluded, "[i]t doesn't feel performative now that you've done major substantial press on the topic." On August 11, 2024, Ms. Abel, laid out a posting timeline to Mr. Baldoni and the team, stating, "[t]heater surprise and then I think survivor content first thing tomorrow am[,] which then will be helpful for news cycle."

87. By repositioning Mr. Baldoni's marketing of the Film, on information and belief, Mr. Baldoni hoped to create the false impression that he had chosen not to appear alongside other cast members. Mr. Baldoni directed his team to share on his public Instagram feed the private messages he had received from survivors sharing their stories of domestic violence with him. Mr. Baldoni's team talked him out of this idea, writing that they "do not recommend using private DMs as content."

Also/ I need you guys to really be on all the stories I'm tagged in.
I think you should let all people dm me so you can see peoples reactions to film and I can be reposting everything. These next 36 hours are crucial and we need to be on it. Looking at everything. Finding the most emotional and touching content from survivors supporting this film and reposting.

88. Mr. Baldoni went so far as proposing to share a video of a woman's "birth moment," but his team talked him out of it, warning that it might be "perceived as 'weird'" and was "too intimate." Still, Mr. Baldoni's team was more than willing to deploy survivors' stories, reactions, and images to protect Mr. Baldoni's image.

89. Wayfarer knew the details of Ms. Lively's and others' concerns, the HR complaints raised regarding Mr. Baldoni's and Mr. Heath's behavior, Ms. Lively's contractual rider, and the January 4, 2024 meeting to discuss their behavior. In addition, Wayfarer's PR team knew about the claims by Ms. Lively and others, as well as the Protections Rider, as Wayfarer sent the materials to them in November 2023.

90. As early as May 2024, Mr. Baldoni told his team that they needed a plan to get ahead of the claims against him, in the event they were to go public. Specifically, Mr. Baldoni wrote: "Just want you guys to have a plan. Plans make me feel more at ease."

91. On May 17, 2024, Mr. Baldoni texted his publicist, Jennifer Abel, that, Ms. Lively's husband had blocked him on social media, stating, "We should have a plan for IF she does the same when [the] movie comes out."¹²

92. In June 2024, a month after Mr. Baldoni's first promotional event for the Film, Ms. Lively and others in the cast fulfilled their first publicity obligation for the Film without Mr. Baldoni. They did not publicly discuss the misconduct that had occurred on set. Nor did they ever suggest to Wayfarer or Mr. Baldoni that they intended to discuss their concerns publicly. Yet, on June 20, 2024, Ms. Abel texted Mr. Heath her concern, "we can't have fans starting to guess why JB is left out of this stuff."

93. Likewise, Mr. Baldoni strategized with his publicist, Ms. Abel, about various ways in which they might cover up or explain away his on-set misconduct. On June 24, 2024, for example, Mr. Baldoni proposed an "offensive move showing [his] neuro divergence and some of the attributes that come with it," to explain that "anything that [he had] been 'accused of' [was] social awkwardness and impulsive speech"¹³

¹² In fact, both Ms. Lively and her husband had unfollowed Mr. Baldoni's social media accounts ten months before.

¹³ Consistent with this plan, Mr. Baldoni has recently been making the press rounds discussing his ADHD. See Kimberlee Speakman, Justin Baldoni Reveals He Was Diagnosed with ADHD at 40 After Struggling Through School: 'I Felt Broken,' People (Dec. 5, 2024, 8:19 AM) <https://people.com/justin-baldoni-reveals-he-was-diagnosed-with-adhd-at-40-8756535>; Christy Pina, Justin Baldoni Says He Had "Near Breakdown" While Filming 'It Ends With Us': "There Was So Much Pain," The Hollywood Reporter (Dec. 4, 2024, 12:53 PM), <https://www.hollywoodreporter.com/movies/movie-news/justin-baldoni-near-breakdown-it-ends-with-us-sexual-trauma-adhd-1236077524/>; Carly Silva, Justin Baldoni Reveals New Clinical

Hey guys -

One thing I think I want to do is the Dr amen show. Matt I know you have your feelings about it but his practice saved my friend Marinda's life a few months ago. With everything going on- I want to have an offensive move showing my neuro divergence and some of the attributes that come with it so that I can start talking about it. Most anything that I have been "accused of" is social awkwardness and impulsive speech and I think me sitting down with him and just looking at my brain and talking about some of the these things will be helpful for me.

94. The same day, Ms. Abel reviewed again the agreed upon list of Protections that formed the basis for the contractual rider.

95. On July 24, 2024, Ms. Abel emailed Mr. Heath, and others, requesting “the legal letter that was sent to [Ms. Lively] and her team,” stating, “per our conversation, we will go through point by point and draft context surrounding each situation. We can then flag what we are missing that would be helpful to arm us in the case we need to refute any of the claims....”

96. On July 26, 2024, Mr. Baldoni sent Ms. Abel a Variety article about Francis Ford Coppola’s inappropriate behavior on set during production of his movie, Megalopolis, including his alleged kissing of cast and crew, as described by “unnamed sources.” In conveying the article, Mr. Baldoni stated: “This is the shit that I’m sure they want to do – unnamed sources etc [sic] . . .”¹⁴

11 102. TAG’s website states that it “offers comprehensive communications services for

16 TAG’s services include messaging and narrative development, media relations, crisis communications

Hi Jamey, Jen

So incredibly glad that the press went so well today and from what I know, Justin felt incredibly supported. He is lucky to have you all.

We took the day today to do some research and get digital quotes in from the two teams we use that get the best results.

As you are both aware, we are in a predicament that we just do not know the outcome of right now.

Saying that, full transparency is key here, we have seen the most innocuous issues turn giant due to socials or the hugest crisis have no effects on social whatsoever- you just cannot tell at this stage. But, BL does have some of the TS fanbase so we will be taking it extremely seriously.

We also understand audience is not solely JB fanbase but, the studio so it is covering all bases time.

Quote one: $175k - this will be for a 3-4 month period and includes: website (to discuss) full reddit, full social account take downs, full social crisis team on hand for anything - engage with audiences in the right way, start threads of theories (to discuss) this is the way to be fully 100%protected.

Quote two $25k per month - min 3 months as it needs to seed same as above - this will be for creation of social fan engagement to go back and forth with any negative accounts, helping to change narrative and stay on track.

All of this will be most importantly untraceable.

There is a lot more to both of these quotes but, easier to discuss via phone in terms of capabilities and what I have personally experienced in and out of crisis scenarios.

Either way, I do feel it is better to be safe but - I do realize costs are something I am sure you did not count on when you took on this project nor, this situation.

Let me know when you would like to discuss more - around on PT tomorrow.

108. The Hollywood Reporter announced the retention of Ms. Nathan and TAG on August 13, 2024. That report stated, in part: “The news comes days after sleuths flooded TikTok with speculation about an alleged rift between Baldoni and his cast and crew, including co-star and producer Blake Lively, as well as Hoover. Chatter spiked when fans noticed Baldoni’s absence from joint press events and the lack of group photos of Lively and Baldoni together at the New York premiere Aug. 6. Some also pointed out that neither Lively or Hoover, nor the rest of the cast, follow Baldoni on Instagram (though he follows them).”²⁰

F. Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath, and Wayfarer Perpetrate A Retaliation Scheme Against Ms. Lively.

109. Ms. Abel, Ms. Nathan, and others employed or engaged by TAG perpetrated a retaliation scheme against Ms. Lively, in collusion with Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath, and Wayfarer. This scheme was what TAG described as a “social manipulation” plan relying on direct and constant media engagement, the seeding of content on traditional and social media platforms, the boosting of content (sometimes the very content that TAG and its affiliates had seeded), the suppressing of negative content about Mr. Baldoni, and amplifying of negative content about Ms. Lively.

110. On August 1, 2024, before any of the cast sat down for interviews at the film’s press junkets, Ms. Abel stated to Mr. Heath and Wayfarer personnel that she had held an in-person meeting with a contributor to People, Fox News, In Touch, and US Weekly. Ms. Abel explained that during the meeting, she had “fully briefed” the contributor “of the situation” with Ms. Lively. Ms. Abel stated that the contributor was “armed and ready to take this story of Blake weaponizing feminism,” and assured Mr. Heath that the contributor “will do anything for us.”

Ms. Nathan’s reference to “Jed,” is a reference to Mr. Jed Wallace, an independent contractor based in Austin, Texas, who was retained by TAG to perform social media services on behalf of Wayfarer and Mr. Baldoni in connection with TAG’s engagement. The quotation appears to be a reference to efforts by Mr. Wallace to seed and influence online forums on Reddit attacking Ms. Lively and defending Mr. Baldoni.

140. The same day, an employee of TAG texted a link to a salacious story about Ms. Lively’s family and noted, “[t]he tides are swirling around Ryan now FYI.” Along these same lines, the team had previously shared an upsetting TikTok video which called for Blake “to divorce Ryan,” writing, “[y]ou guys will love this.” TAG then described this post as “[v]ery helpful.”

143. Further, Ms. Nathan and her team at TAG helped generate or otherwise influence the content put forth by various TikTok accountholders.

144. During the same period of time, Ms. Nathan, Ms. Abel, and their teams were “heavily monitoring,” had “friendlies updating” them, and sought to address unflattering commentary regarding Mr. Baldoni, while augmenting the spread of stories that were favorable to Mr. Baldoni.

145. For example, on August 9, 2024, Ms. Abel circulated a screenshot of a post by a woman stating, “Justin, the creator of a show called My Last Days, exploits the struggles of individuals facing terminal illnesses for his own gain. He found my friend, who is battling a serious illness, and

1 followed her life closely. Despite her grace in not speaking ill of him, I sensed from the start that
 2 something was deeply wrong. Justin weaponizes therapeutic language, presenting himself as thoughtful
 3 and supportive, yet his actions reveal a very different reality. He portrays himself as an ally to women
 4 and the vulnerable, but it's all a façade—he manipulates the vernacular of care to mask his true intentions.
 5 In reality, none of the proceeds from the show benefited the individuals he profiled. He even had the 6 audacity to depict her hometown, a vibrant and affluent community, as a small, impoverished town. His
 7 portrayal was not just inaccurate but insulting. Once the show aired, Justin took his profits and vanished,
 8 leaving nothing but a sense of exploitation in his wake. His behavior was not just tacky and gross—it was 9 a betrayal of the very people he claimed to uplift.”

11 146. In response to the article, Ms. Abel stated, “I’m assuming this is not true in the

150. On August 18, 2024, Mr. Baldoni circulated a TikTok video in which the poster criticized Ms. Lively for not speaking about domestic violence in press interviews. A member of Ms. Nathan’s team responded that she would “let digital know.”²⁴

151. During the same period of time, when media sources inquired about HR complaints that were made on the set of the Film, Ms. Nathan, Ms. Abel, and their teams worked to suppress coverage of these HR complaints.

152. Further, on or around August 14, 2024, media outlets directly inquired about HR complaints made on set because they were “being told there were at least three HR complaints filed against Justin Baldoni on the set of ‘It Ends With Us’” and inquired “if the complaints were investigated and what the results were.”

including Reddit and TikTok, as well as online media sources.

158. For example, on August 13, 2024, various text messages were exchanged between Ms. Abel and the journalist Sara Nathan (who, as explained above, is Melissa Nathan's sister).²⁶ These messages consisted of drafts of a story outlining Ms. Lively's role in making final cuts to the Film.

159. After Sara Nathan circulated draft language related to Ms. Lively's involvement in the different cuts of the film, Ms. Abel sent Sara Nathan revisions to the draft, which Sara Nathan offered to "amend."

160. On the same day, an article authored by Sara Nathan, titled Blake Lively approved final cut of 'It Ends with Us' amid feud with co-star director Justin Baldoni, was published in Page Six, owned by the New York Post.²⁷

161. The article addressed, among other topics, Ms. Lively's role in approving the final cut of the Film but emphasizes how Ms. Lively "contribut[ed] to almost every aspect of [the Film];" that her husband "wrote one of the most important scenes in the movie;" and that she was "begged" to remove one of her song choices from the Film, despite Mr. Baldoni's ownership of the "rights to the book via his production company, Wayfarer."

162. The language contained in the article is almost a verbatim copy of the language exchanged between Sara Nathan and Ms. Abel via text and reflects multiple of Ms. Abel's revisions to Sara Nathan's original proposed draft.

163. TAG publicly shared this article on one or more social media platforms, including Reddit, prompting various negative comments in relation to Ms. Lively and her husband and the narrative that Ms. Lively "steamrolled" or "bulldozed" Mr. Baldoni and the Film "for her own personal gain."²⁸

8 which she spent seven years building, the Instagram account of the brand was flooded by harassing and 9 derogatory comments, including many posted by user accounts that had no followers and no prior posts

170. Ms. Nathan assured Mr. Baldoni that “[t]his is an easy flip,” before indicating that she was already working on a story for Variety that would achieve this goal.

171. As of August 16, 2024, Ms. Nathan was continuing to confer with additional reporters to release stories that would cast Ms. Lively and/or Mr. Reynolds in a negative light.

172. Meanwhile, Ms. Lively neither publicly commented nor directed any of her representatives to comment to or engage with the print media, social media or otherwise about the hostile work environment Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath and Wayfarer created. Indeed, throughout the time period discussed herein, Ms. Lively did not provide her publicist with details about the hostile work environment that she, alongside the other cast members and crew, had experienced.

173. Moreover, Ms. Lively expressly instructed her publicist not to engage with press inquiries, including ones regarding the on-set behavior of Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath, or Wayfarer.

174. Experiencing the very sudden tidal wave of the increasingly negative public attention building around her, however, Ms. Lively began to suspect that the extraordinarily rapid shift in public sentiment and press coverage that began immediately after the rest of the cast and crew attended the world premiere was likely orchestrated by the men about whom she had raised HR complaints.

G. Mr. Baldoni Retaliated Because HR Complaints Regarding His Behavior Threatened His Feminist Brand.

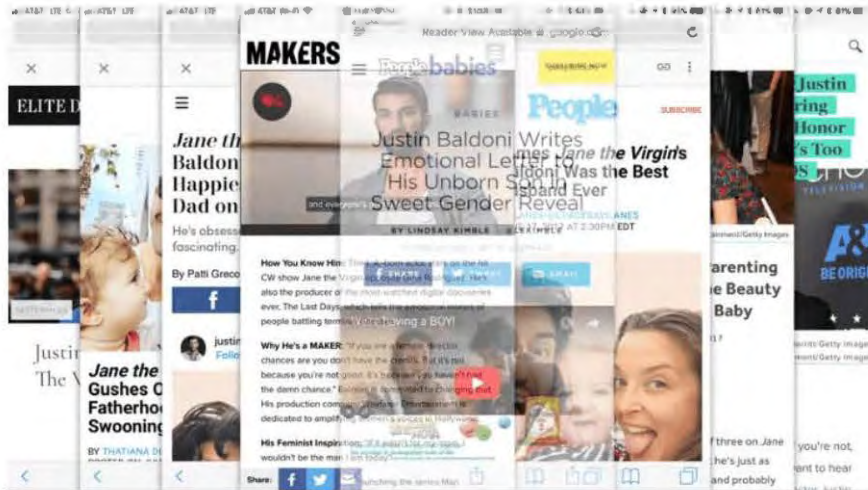

175. On information and belief, Mr. Baldoni was desperate to suppress any suggestion that he engaged inappropriate conduct, much less sexually harassing conduct, because it would entirely undermine his carefully curated public image as a feminist ally.

176. In 2017, Justin Baldoni presented a Ted Talk entitled, “Why I’m Done Trying to be ‘Man Enough.’” Mr. Baldoni challenged men to “be man enough to stand up to other men when [they] hear ‘locker room talk,’ when [they] hear stories of sexual harassment.”³¹ Mr. Baldoni asked listeners, “will you actually stand up and do something so that one day we don’t have to live in a world where a woman has to risk everything and come forward to say the words “me too?”³²

8 181. Mr. Baldoni stated in his 2017 TED Talk, men “are the problem” they created the 9 “glass ceiling”;³⁹ and if they want “to be part of the solution, then words are no longer enough.”⁴⁰ By Mr.
10 Baldoni’s account, he became a “feminist fighting for gender equality . . . so quickly that [he] hadn’t even 11 realized that’s what [he] was or was trying to do.”⁴¹

12 182. In Mr. Baldoni’s own words, his “activism” “starts in the mirror, with an audience
13 of one.”⁴² Mr. Baldoni has stated that he “feel[s] a deep responsibility” to “tear down the walls” of “power
14 and privilege”⁴³ and “believe[s] the world needs men to show up, not in big ways, but in hundreds and 15 thousands of little ways” to “create a better, more equitable, just world.”⁴⁴

17 183. Over the past approximately seven years, and as relevant to this Complaint, Mr.
18 Baldoni has made the following statements:

We’ve built this system—the opposite of accountability—and now it’s time to figure out how, as men, we can break that system, and it starts with showing what a real man is. A real man is someone that says, ‘Hey man, we’re still friends, but that’s not cool.’”⁴⁷

10 184. In sum, Mr. Baldoni has crafted a public image of himself as not just an ally, but 11 also a fierce advocate for women. Contrary to this image, as set forth in detail above, Mr. Baldoni has 12 spent the last several months and significant resources on his goal of wanting to “bury” and “destroy” Ms.
13 Lively for raising concerns about his and his CEO’s harassing behavior and other disturbing conduct.

17 185. While there was considerable online coverage of the Film and Ms. Lively leading 18 up to the Film’s nationwide release in U.S. theaters on August 9, 2024, that coverage was mostly neutral.
19 Some online discussions referenced an apparent “feud” between the cast members, but they included a 20 smaller percentage of negative and positive mentions.

21 186. Soon, however, Ms. Lively and her team became aware of an increase in negative
22 media articles and social media coverage about her.

187. The significant spike in the volume of negative sentiments toward Ms. Lively, included notable spikes on approximately August 8 and 14, 2024, and continued to trend mostly negative for the remainder of 2024:

188. Indeed, as noted above, TAG itself noted a shift due to their efforts as early as August 10, 2024.

189. As of that date, the sentiment towards Ms. Lively turned toxic, with a sudden increase in negative comments—including hypersexual content and calls for Ms. Lively to “go fuck” herself.⁵⁵

190. Nearly decade-old interviews of Ms. Lively were surfaced, commenting on her tone, her posture, her diction, her language.⁵⁶

4 192. Articles—which members of the TAG and Jonesworks team working on behalf of platforms.

194. The “social manipulation” campaign engineered by Mr. Baldoni and Wayfarer helped create and sustain a negative news cycle and social media algorithm around Ms. Lively.

195. The online narrative continues to trend more negatively as compared other weeks and months prior to the social manipulation campaign, as reflected in the sentiment chart dating from the publicity event on June 13, 2024, through to the present:

196. This was precisely the effect that the Baldoni-Wayfarer team hoped to achieve—they manipulated the social conversation to discredit and “bury” Ms. Lively in retaliation for reporting her concerns about harassing and unsafe conduct during the production of the Film, and in the hopes of deterring Ms. Lively from potentially taking those same concerns public. This campaign has been devastating to Ms. Lively, including by causing substantial harm to Ms. Lively, her family, as well as her businesses and all the people who work at each of them.

197. Unlike Wayfarer and Mr. Baldoni, Ms. Lively has been precluded from not only experiencing the success of the Film, but also from having the ability to engage further with her businesses, fans, and social media followers without immediately triggering an onslaught of hateful comments. Instead, Ms. Lively and her family have been forced to contend with a wide-reaching negative media campaign.

1 198. When it became clear that this media blitz was the result of an intentionally seeded,
2 cultivated and financed campaign against her, Ms. Lively began to experience mental, physical,
3 professional, and financial harms that continue to this day.

4 199. The effects on Ms. Lively's professional life were immediate and substantial.
5 Given the ongoing nature of the campaign and the associated negative public sentiment, Ms. Lively did
6 not believe she could proceed with public appearances or events without being forced to openly discuss
7 what happened on set. For example, Ms. Lively cancelled a critical Target corporate event for her
8 haircare company, and she backed out of her scheduled role to host the premier episode of the 50th 9 anniversary season of Saturday Night Live in September 2024.

10 200. The retaliation campaign against Ms. Lively has damaged her companies as well.
11 The long-planned launch of her haircare line, Blake Brown—a date which was set more than a year prior 12 to the date selected (not by Ms. Lively) for the release of the Film—was caught up in the crossfires of 13 the negative environment against Ms. Lively. Initially, before the “social manipulation” campaign
14 started, Ms. Lively was informed that Blake Brown was Target's largest haircare launch on record. Based 15 on internal sales projections, the sudden and unexpected negative media campaign launched against Ms.
16 Lively depressed retail sales of Blake Brown products by 56%–78%. This dramatic drop was completely
17 at odds with the high satisfaction scores that Blake Brown products received in the significant consumer 18 testing performed before launch or its initial success after launch.

19 201. Around the same time, the social media accounts for Ms. Lively's brands—
20 including Betty Buzz and Betty Booze—were flooded by hateful comments, which began to echo through 21 other social and traditional media outlets. On information and belief, the astroturfing campaign was 22 responsible for this wave of comments. None of Ms. Lively's businesses could operate as they ordinarily 23 had before; instead, the Baldoni-Wayfarer astroturfing campaign forced each of Ms. Lively's businesses
24 to go “dark” on social media in August. Ms. Lively did the same, for nearly two months, and during this 25 time was unable to market or promote any of her businesses, all of which rely on her support, causing 26
27
28

1 issues with many business partners and customers. Moreover, when Ms. Lively limited comments on
 2 her personal Instagram account to limit the toxic harassment she was receiving, those users simply
 3 migrated to the social media accounts and websites of Blake Brown, Betty Buzz, and Betty Booze.⁵⁹
 4 Many of the negative comments on these businesses' social media accounts and websites had nothing to 5 do with the products or brands, but instead referenced the Film, Mr. Baldoni, and/or Ms. Lively as a
 6 "bully" or "mean girl."

8 202. The emotional impact on Ms. Lively has been extreme, not only affecting her, but 9 her family, including her husband and four children. There are days when she has struggled to get out of 10 bed, and she frequently chooses not to venture outside in public. While she has fought to maintain her 11 personal life and business interests, behind closed doors she has suffered from grief, fear, trauma, and 12 extreme anxiety. She also has been experiencing repeated and painful physical symptoms as a result of 13 this experience. Mr. Reynolds, too, has been affected mentally, physically, and professionally by his wife
 14 and children's pain. Worst of all, however, has been the impact on their young children, who have been 15 traumatized and emotionally uprooted in ways that have substantially impacted their well-being.

17 203. These are but a few examples of the substantial harm caused by this malicious
 18 campaign, which pervaded, and continues to pervade, all aspects of Ms. Lively's life. Ms. Lively never 19 sought out conflict with Wayfarer, Ms. Baldoni, or Mr. Heath, but instead consistently attempted to speak
 20 up for a safe and respectful workplace privately in the hopes of protecting herself, as well as the cast and 21 crew, without jeopardizing a Film that she believed could make a difference in peoples' lives. In 22 response, Mr. Baldoni, Mr. Heath, and those working for them, sought to destroy Ms. Lively and anyone

1 else who knew the truth. Ms. Lively's discovery of the full extent of the retaliatory campaign launched
2 by the Wayfarer Parties has left her with no choice. Through this Complaint, Ms. Lively seeks to set the
3 record straight, to hold the Wayfarer Parties and Associates accountable, and to shine a light on this new
4 form of retaliation so that it will not be used against any others who seek to stand up and speak out against 5 sexual harassment.

Dear Imene and Joseph,

With the tentative resolution of the SAG-AFTRA strike, we are writing to address how to handle a return to the set of "It Ends With Us" (the "Film"). It is no surprise to the Film's producers that the experience of shooting the Film has been deeply concerning on many levels. The complaints of our client and others have been repeatedly conveyed and well-documented throughout pre-production and photography.

While we reserve all legal rights, at this stage our client is willing to forego a more formal HR process in favor of everyone returning to work and finishing the Film as long as the set is safe moving forward. In order for our client to feel safe returning to the production, we are attaching a list of protections that will need to be guaranteed and observed by the Film's producers. If the production is unwilling to accept or uphold these protections, our client is prepared to pursue her full legal rights and remedies.

This letter is not intended to constitute a full statement of all facts and circumstances relating to this matter. It is not intended to be, nor should it be construed as, a waiver, release or relinquishment of any of our client's rights or remedies, legal or equitable, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

Sincerely,

Lindsey

Protections for Return to Production

In order for Blake Lively (BL) to be able to return to production on the Film, each of the following protections must be agreed to in writing and met without fail going forward:

1. An intimacy coordinator must be present at all times when BL is on set.
2. There must be a closed set during the rehearsal or filming of any scene involving simulated sex or nudity and any observation via remote monitors shall be restricted to essential personnel as approved by BL (to be further described in a fully-negotiated, fully-executed, SAG-compliant nudity rider (“Nudity Rider”)).
3. There is to be no spontaneous improvising of any scenes involving physical touching, simulated sex, or nudity. Scenes involving kissing, depictions of sexual intercourse, or any other physical touching must be contained in the screenplay (as approved by BL), choreographed in advance in the presence of the intimacy coordinator, and may only proceed as choreographed with the consent of all participants in advance.
4. Physical touching and/or comments on BL’s physical appearance must only be done/made in connection with the character and scene work, not as to BL personally. Except as written into the screenplay or as strictly required in connection with make-up or costume preparation, there is to be no physical touching (including hugging) of BL, her on-set personnel and/or her employees.
5. There are to be no discussions of personal experiences with sex or nudity, including as it relates to conduct with spouses or others.
6. No one will enter, attempt to enter, interrupt, pressure, or request entrance to BL’s trailer while she is in a state of undress for any reason.
7. There shall be no rehearsal or filming of any nudity and/or simulated sex without the Nudity Rider in place. Any such footage previously shot without the Nudity Rider in place, and in direct violation of SAG requirements, may not be used without BL’s and her legal representatives’ prior, written consent.
8. BL may have a representative of her choosing present with her on set for the remainder of the rehearsal and shooting days, including while on a closed set.
9. If BL is exposed to COVID-19, she must be provided notice as soon as possible after Wayfarer or any producer or production executive becomes aware of such exposure.
10. There shall be no retaliation of any kind against BL for raising concerns about the conduct described in this letter or for these requirements. Any changes in attitude, sarcasm, marginalization or other negative behavior, either on set or otherwise, including during publicity and promotional work, as a result of these requests is retaliatory and unacceptable, and will be met with immediate action.

11. Sony must have a mutually-approved representative on set for the remainder of the rehearsal and shooting days, including on a closed set, to actively supervise the production, including monitoring the safety of the cast and crew, ensuring compliance with the schedule and overseeing logistics, problem solving and creative issues.
12. Wayfarer will engage an additional, experienced A-level producer, approved by Ms. Lively, to actively supervise the production, including monitoring the safety of the cast and crew, ensuring compliance with the schedule and overseeing logistics, problem solving and creative issues.
13. Wayfarer must empower any existing third party producer with appropriate and customary authority to actively supervise the production, including monitoring the safety of the cast and crew, ensuring compliance with the schedule and overseeing logistics, problem solving and creative issues.
14. Wayfarer will engage an A-list stunt double, approved by Ms. Lively, to rehearse and perform any scenes involving the character “Lily” that depicts rape or any act of sexual violence. Ms. Lively will only perform close-up work or other pre-approved shots for such scenes.
15. Any rehearsal or shooting involving Ms. Lively, or any other performer depicting the character of “Lily,” that involves nudity (including partial nudity) or simulated sex must be conducted strictly in accordance with the Nudity Rider and must adhere to the approved script.
16. Any and all day players must be engaged through customary industry talent agencies and not through personal connections of the director and/or producer.
17. Hold an all-hands, in-person meeting before production resumes which will include the director, all producers, the Sony representative, the newly-engaged third party producer, BL and BL’s designated representatives to confirm and approve a plan for implementation of the above that will be adhered to for the physical and emotional safety of BL, her employees and all the cast and crew moving forward.

REFERENCE IS MADE to that certain actor agreement (“Agreement”), dated as of May 5, 2023 between IT ENDS WITH US MOVIE, LLC (“Company”) and BLAKEL, INC. (“Lender”) for the acting and related services of Blake Lively (“Artist”) in connection with the motion picture currently entitled “IT ENDS WITH US” (“Picture”).

WHEREAS, the parties wish to confirm the conditions under which Lender has agreed to cause Artist to render acting services on the Picture following the break in production of the Picture related to the 2023 WGA and SAG-AFTRA labor strikes.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Company agrees to the following additional terms and conditions in connection with Artist’s services and use of Artist’s results and proceeds in the Picture which shall be deemed incorporated into the Agreement.

1. An intimacy coordinator must be present at all times when Artist is on set.
2. With respect to Artist, any and all rehearsal, filming, reviewing of video playback or dailies and/or any other interaction with any scene involving simulated sex, nudity and/or partial nudity shall be restricted to those persons with essential business reasons for being present (“Essential Personnel”) as approved by Artist and Todd Black as further described in the nudity rider attached as Schedule I hereto (“Nudity Rider”).
3. There is to be no spontaneous improvising of any scenes involving intimate/sexual physical touching, simulated sex, or nudity with respect to Artist. Scenes involving Artist that involves kissing, depictions of sexual intercourse, or any other intimate/sexual physical touching must be contained in the screenplay (i.e., the most up to date draft approved by Artist in writing), choreographed in advance in the presence of the intimacy coordinator, and may only proceed as choreographed with the consent of all participants in advance.
4. Physical touching and/or comments on Artist’s physical appearance must only be done/made in connection with the character and scene work, not as to Artist personally. Except as written into the screenplay or as strictly required in connection with make-up or costume preparation, there is to be no physical touching (including hugging) of Artist, her on-set personnel and/or her employees.
5. There are to be no discussions with Artist of personal experiences with sex or nudity, including as it relates to conduct with spouses or others.

6. No one will enter, attempt to enter, interrupt, pressure, or request entrance to Artist's trailer while she is in a state of undress for any reason.
7. There shall be no rehearsal or filming of Artist (including Artist's approved body double) of any nudity, partial nudity and/or simulated sex except as expressly permitted in accordance with the Nudity Rider. Any such footage of Artist (or Artist's body double) previously shot without the Nudity Rider in place may not be used without Artist's and her legal representatives' prior, written consent.
8. Artist may have a representative of her choosing present with her on set for the remainder of the rehearsal and shooting days, including while on a closed set.
9. If Artist is exposed to COVID-19, she must be provided notice as soon as possible after Wayfarer or any producer or production executive becomes aware of such exposure.
10. There shall be no retaliation of any kind against Artist for raising concerns about the conduct described in this letter or for these requirements. Any changes in attitude, sarcasm, marginalization or other negative behavior, either on set or otherwise, including during publicity and promotional work, as a result of these requests is retaliatory and unacceptable, and will be met with immediate action.
11. Except as otherwise agreed by Artist, while Artist is on set, Sony must have a mutually-approved representative (Ange Giannetti is hereby approved) on set for the remainder of the rehearsal and shooting days, including on a closed set, to actively supervise the production, including monitoring the safety of the cast and crew, ensuring compliance with the schedule and overseeing logistics, problem solving and creative issues.
12. Wayfarer will engage an additional, experienced A-level producer, approved by Artist (Todd Black is hereby approved) (the "Approved Producer"), to actively supervise the production, including monitoring the safety of the cast and crew, ensuring compliance with the schedule and overseeing logistics, problem solving and creative issues provided that Company shall have the right to approve the agreement with the Approved Producer.
13. Wayfarer must empower any existing third party producer with appropriate and customary authority to actively supervise the production, including monitoring the safety of the cast and crew, ensuring compliance with the schedule and overseeing logistics, problem solving and creative issues.
14. Wayfarer will engage an A-list stunt double, approved by Artist (Lauren Shaw approved as stunt double), to rehearse and perform any scenes involving the character "Lily" that depicts rape or any act of sexual violence. Artist will only perform close-up work or other pre-approved shots for such scenes. In addition, Wayfarer to engage Artist-approved body doubles for both characters (i.e., "Lily" and "Ryle") for all simulated sex scenes (Cole Mason approved as body double for "Ryle"). Wayfarer will use reasonable good faith commercial efforts to engage the same Artist-approved individual as Artist's body double and stunt double.
15. Any rehearsal or shooting involving Artist, or any other performer depicting the character of "Lily," that involves nudity (including partial nudity) or simulated sex must be conducted strictly in accordance with the Nudity Rider and must adhere to the final, Artist-approved script. For the avoidance of doubt, there will be no use of footage in the Picture that depicts any underage character or underage actor engaged in sexual intercourse or any form of penetration.

16. Any and all day players that participate in any way in scenes with Artist involving nudity, partial nudity and/or simulated sex must be engaged through customary industry talent agencies and not through personal connections of the director and/or producer.
17. At Artist's election, an all-hands, in-person meeting before production resumes which will include the director, the existing producers, the Sony representative, the Approved Producer, Artist and Artist's designated representatives to confirm and approve a plan for implementation of the above that will be adhered to for the physical and emotional safety of Artist, her employees and all the cast and crew moving forward.

In the event of any conflict between the terms and conditions of the Agreement and the terms and conditions of this side letter agreement, the terms and conditions of this side letter agreement shall control.

IT ENDS WITH US

August 9, 2024

(UPDATED 7/29/24)

LOGLINE

IT ENDS WITH US, the first Colleen Hoover novel adapted for the big screen, tells the compelling story of Lily Bloom (Blake Lively), a woman who overcomes a traumatic childhood to embark on a new life in Boston and chase a lifelong dream of opening her own business. A chance meeting with charming neurosurgeon Ryle Kincaid (Justin Baldoni) sparks an intense connection, but as the two fall deeply in love, Lily begins to see sides of Ryle that remind her of her parents' relationship. When Lily's first love, Atlas Corrigan (Brandon Sklenar), suddenly reenters her life, her relationship with Ryle is upended, and Lily realizes she must learn to rely on her own strength to make an impossible choice for her future.

Directed by Justin Baldoni and produced by Alex Saks, Jamey Heath, Blake Lively and Christy Hall. The film stars Blake Lively, Justin Baldoni, Jenny Slate, Hasan Minhaj, Amy Morton and Brandon Sklenar, from a screenplay by Christy Hall, based on the book by Colleen Hoover.

POSITIONING

Blake Lively and Justin Baldoni are starring in the film adaptation of Colleen Hoover's highest-selling novel It Ends With Us.

This is the first film of the Colleen Hoover phenomena to be adapted for the big screen. She is also executive producing.

Justin Baldoni is also directing and executive producing.

As well as starring, Blake Lively is also producing.

Brandon Sklenar is perfectly cast as the charismatic Atlas who brings an impressive emotional depth to the role, along with Jenny Slate and Hasan Minhaj, who both bring compassion and humor to the film.

Teen versions of Atlas and Lily are played by up-and-coming actors Alex Neustaedter and Isabela Ferrer, who deliver exceptional performances.

IT ENDS WITH US is a big, emotional, complicated story about breaking free from the past and empowering yourself and your future. The character of Lily Bloom has resonated with so many readers because her journey is relatable – her story isn't black and white. She has to make hard decisions that have lasting consequences.

This is a story about Lily's journey from leaving a small town, moving to Boston and embarking on a whole new life. She leaves behind a complicated childhood and in doing so discovers her own resilience and strength, empowering her to stand up to adversity.

This movie has every emotion – joy, sadness, pain, and hope.

After growing up in a home where Lily witnessed her mother being abused by her father and vowing never to be in that position, she enters a relationship with Ryle and unwittingly finds herself following the same footsteps as her mother. Through this journey, Lily must learn to stand up for herself and that true strength lies within.

The book connected with millions of readers and became a rare phenomenon in the publishing world – everyone knows someone who has read this book.

Whether you have read the book or not, this is the perfect movie to see with your friends or anyone in your support system. Women all rely on their sisters, mothers, girlfriends etc for support as they navigate the ups and downs of life and so this is the perfect film to share the experience with those in their support network.

After becoming a “BookTok” cultural phenomenon with over 2 billion views on her TikTok hashtag, Colleen Hoover is currently the best-selling novelist in the US with over 25 million books sold by the end of 2023. Hoover wrote five of the top 10 best-selling print books of any genre in 2022.

Published in 43 foreign languages, It Ends With Us was the top selling print book of 2022, has been on the New York Times Best Seller List for over 135 weeks by the end of 2023.

WHAT TO AVOID

Focus more on Lily’s strength and resilience as opposed to describing the film as a story about domestic violence. Empowerment is not just about standing up to adversity, but also about having the power to overcome within oneself and grow from it and developing agency to shape the future.

Avoid describing the film as a love story or love triangle – it’s the story of Lily learning how to take agency of her future.

Avoid talking about this film that makes it feel sad or heavy – it’s a story of hope.

Avoid talking about the film being representative of every woman’s story. There are many stories of domestic violence, and this is just one perspective that is inspired by Colleen Hoover’s own experiences growing up.

ONLY IF ASKED

Any questions about the story not being an authentic representation of domestic violence:

This is just one perspective that is inspired by Colleen Hoover’s own deeply personal story of growing up in Texas.

Any questions about the lack of diversity in the cast:

We have such a wonderful cast who all bring something unique in telling this powerful story of one woman learning to take agency over her future. I’m so proud to be part of an incredible group of women who have to make this film that is inspired by Colleen Hoover’s own deeply personal story.

SCENARIO PLANNING – IT ENDS WITH US

OBJECTIVE

Protect the reputation of Justin Baldoni, Jamey Heath, and Wayfarer Studios in the lead up, during, and following the premiere of It Ends with Us, underscore the achievement and efforts of the Wayfarer team in bringing this movie to life, and emphasize Justin and the studio's commitment to their team and making the broader industry a more inclusive space.

OVERVIEW

Though there are several potential scenarios at play here which we should be prepared for, should BL and her team make her grievances public – via a blatant story or subtle leak. Given she was made to compromise with the premiere, we feel she will move forward with doing so.

Our recommendation is to get ahead of this narrative, owning any misconceptions and addressing them head on. Ultimately, we need to be ready to take the air out of any story that does arise, as well as commentary and/or background narrative BL and her team put together, without being the louder antagonist.

The TAG team will continue to media monitor, flag, and respond to any media proactively reaching out / reporting on the issue and will send regular reports on existing chatter that may arise. Additionally, our team's digital experts will continue to monitor and flag any online content related to the crisis and/or mitigate if false narratives begin in the digital space.

Crisis Mitigation and Rapid Response

- Our team will establish a “rapid response” communication system which keeps Justin, Jamey, and Wayfarer Studios abreast of new coverage and narrative trends in real time, both in traditional media and social media.
- Alongside Jen Abel and her team, we will manage media inquiries regarding the news on background as “sources familiar.”
- Working with legal as appropriate, we will provide information to ensure our narrative is properly represented in any and all coverage.
- TAG will confirm outlets intending on covering the story, especially those impactful to Justin, Jamey, and Wayfarer's interests, are fully briefed on the situation including and not limited to The Hollywood Reporter, Variety, Deadline, The Wrap, New York Post, Daily Mail, etc.
- We will run real-time media monitoring reports with multiple daily updates on any coverage that arises and impact that the PR teams have had on stories.
- Further, we will produce daily sentiment reports which capture the reach and attitude of opinions online related to the issue and towards Justin, Jamey, and Wayfarer. These reports will also qualify the level of impact these stories have and the gradual decrease in interest post-crisis on this narrative.

Preparation Materials:

- Our team will develop clean, topline messaging outlining the facts in conjunction with Jen Abel and her team.
- Our team and Wayfarer Studios will discern what assets pertaining to communications, schedules, times when BL called out, etc. that we can share for off record and/or for context purposes with journalists.

- Our team and Wayfarer Studios, alongside Jen Abel and team, will catalog third party advocates willing to provide a potential quote or engage with reporters on Justin and Jamey's behalf to mitigate negative narratives from a source outside of Wayfarer.
- Our team will collate a list of people who have publicly discussed their positive working experience with Justin – examples include Brandon Skylnar / Forbes, Colleen Hoover / Entertainment Weekly, etc.

Key Messaging Points:

- JB's stellar reputation among colleagues and industry peers - numerous quotes and interviews sharing positive experiences.
- JB has been a longtime activist and advocate of and for women in Hollywood, speaking out about challenges his colleagues faced before the Me Too movement even began (TED 2017).
- The "Man Enough" podcast has been a source of inspiration since it began, fostering a safe, encouraging environment for a range of perspectives to meet and discuss gender roles and how their rigidity affects everyone.
- While JB and JH attempted to foster a kind, safe, creative environment on set during a challenging period in Hollywood – resurgence of COVID-19, the writers strike, the SAG AFTRA strike – their efforts were continuously thrown back in their faces.
- Production members lost their jobs due to BL's takeover and insisted upon involvement – including loss of budget due to rescheduling shoot days when BL refused to show up.
- When BL wasn't able to get her way on set or behind the scenes, she involved her husband to create an imbalance of power between her and JB. RR went so far as to use his power to call agents and agencies, Sony, and other key players so that BL would get her way.
- BL's less than favorable reputation in the industry spans decades and has been reported – there were issues on Gossip Girl, the Town, A Simple Favor, and more.
- There is a clear, likely motive due to the film's value and fanbase, in which BL is attempting to bully her way into buying the rights for It Starts With Us.
- Our team will also include additional positive stats re: JB's career, his accolades, his inspiration to take on this project, obstacles he overcame, what's in store, etc.

IF/THEN PLAN OF ACTION:

Scenario 1: Blake and team push out negative story re: Justin / Wayfarer post-premiere

- Depending upon the scope of her push, we recommend planting a seed earlier on to position your truth / narrative around the ordeal in a subtle way to avoid having to backtrack.
- An idea for this, and working alongside Jen, is giving a friendly reporter who is covering the film a simple line hinting that while you and Blake didn't always agree at times "had our differences" you have respect for her. This way, if BL stories are softer, we don't look so aggressive. If it's a hit piece, then we've tee'd up reporters properly that there were issues with her. We would also ensure the story is broader, about the film, inspiration, etc. so that the line is one part of a larger piece.
- If her team is working on a longer lead, negative narrative, we would be given (a short) heads up in advance of the story and would, alongside Jen, correct inaccuracies in fact checking, mitigate false narratives, and point reporters toward third party advocates who can speak positively on your behalf.
- We would then brief people with a more robust version of the facts, executing a background approach, using third party advocates, and off record conversations with trusted friendlies to depict the truth of the situation. Targets would include popular industry newsletters (targeting industry peers, studio execs, investors, etc.) and social media (targeting JB's fanbase and those of the novel/film) as well as trades / mainstream entertainment. Background information would include:

- Background briefing would clarify any misconceptions, what was taken out of context, and what can be chalked up to simple misunderstanding or miscommunication.
- Background briefing would highlight JB, JH, and Wayfarer's side of the story, what their truth is as it pertains to any allegations or negativity, facts based on the timeline, and issues they experienced on their end e.g. lost days of shooting, consistently adhering to demands, etc.
- Background briefing would include the fact that production members lost their jobs due to her involvement / takeover.
- Background briefing would include the numerous articles, interviews, and quotes of past colleagues who openly love working with Justin, and pointing to BL's less than favorable reputation of her twenty-year career.
- Background briefing would include pointing people to positive commentary, quotes, interviews from colleagues and peers of Justin praising his work, etc.

Scenario 2: Blake subtly hints at her "experience" in post-premiere coverage, either in an interview, op ed, or otherwise.

- Our prediction is that should BL address her "experience" on set in upcoming press, she will not name you directly but rather pepper in "easter eggs" alluding to your involvement, being mindful not to completely jeopardize her potential involvement with the film's sequel, while still planting seeds of doubt and speculation – especially amongst the passionate fan base.
- BL and her team have already begun to plant seeds around this, in insisting promotion be kept separate. Fans have already begun to speculate on socials that something is amiss.
- These pieces will likely come out following any potential hit piece and/or coverage from the premiere. Our recommended approach would be to provide reporters who reach out for comment, should it be obvious she's referring to you, with the appropriate background information (listed in Scenario 1) to ensure their stories are balanced and the speculation can be turned to another one of the many people she's had issues working with (Leighton Meester, Anna Kendrick, Ben Affleck, etc.).
- Additionally, we would advise taking further ownership of this narrative as an emerging director, lessons learned managing different egos, being the subject to an imbalance of power and/or navigating Hollywood, remaining dedicated throughout more challenging processes to protect the crew and production members, etc. – remaining strong but not specific or combative.
- This messaging can be woven into more positive press about the film, placed by Jen and team, so that you stay on the high road while sharing your truth in a respectful way. A subtle way to do this is to address some of the issues you faced on your podcast, and open the floor to discuss ways in which imbalances of Hollywood still need to be addressed, how teams can create safe environments for all cast and production members on set, etc.

Scenario 3: Ryan comes forward in defense of his wife

- Should Ryan come forward in defense of his wife, we would advise against any direct engagement, statement, etc.
- Inquiring reporters, and those in need of updating, would be given a pre-approved line of background, attributed to source, implying his lack of connection or involvement with the making of the film and that this is another imbalance of power and attempt to strongarm production by major A-list stars.
- Our team would also suggest (and will work with Jen Abel and her team on this) placing proactive interviews for Justin around the movie's debut, to speak to his experiences directing, what it's like to produce, direct and star in a movie, the difference between being in charge and being one of the cast, “lessons learned” from his experience as a director on this film and others, and what’s to come in the IEWU universe.

- This will get ahead of any potential negative news placed by BL and/or her team, and seed doubt should BL or RR come forward with negative messaging.
- As part of this, our team can also explore planting stories about the weaponization of feminism and how people in BL’s circle like Taylor Swift, have been accused of utilizing these tactics to “bully” into getting what they want.
